Hello TACVPO Members!

As the TACVPO President, I want to extend my appreciation and thanks to those who presented in Corpus Christi. Your willingness to teach, speak and encourage is incredibly valuable. I also want to extend my appreciation to those who attended the TACVPO conference. I hope the conference content was of value to you. In addition, the entire TACVPO Board wants to thank those who submitted a TACVPO Survey. The feedback received was helpful and as you're President will make every effort to improve our organization each year.

I want to thank the 2018 Local Arrangement Committee (LAC) consisting of Leo Kowalik; Hallmark University, Vincent Bosquez; Alamo Community College and Flor Arambula; Alamo Community College for volunteering to coordinate conference details for our membership. I want to also thank the Committee Members Rebecca, Susan, Karen, Basilia and Lidia who volunteered to give a voice to 2 year Public, 4 year Public, 4 year private and NCD schools.

The 2018 Board has a preliminary game plan and will be making executive decisions based on what is best for the entire TACVPO membership. Rest assured that I and the TACVPO leadership's goal is to provide opportunities for your professional and personal growth.

As your President of TACVPO, I am ready to take on the opportunities awaiting us this year. The TACVPO Board has already built a strong team and is excited and engaged. Currently, we met in San Antonio, TX on May 9, 2017 to plan of the 44th TACVPO Conference. The Board and Local Arrangement Committee (LAC) toured the hotel, discussed possible sessions and conference activities. Michael Lugo is leading the San Antonio LAC this year. There are already exciting things being planned. Kelly Murphy is revamping the TACVPO website <https://www.tacvpo.com/>. Tila Jernigan has been documenting our meeting minutes and has volunteered to assist where needed. Mary Roby has secured a new TACVPO bank account and has confirmed we are financially sound. I have been listening to my team and am leading us forward.

Save the date: March 19 – 23, 2018 Location: Menger Hotel Alamo Plaza

Respectfully,
Bernice Flett,
President
