Institution

Hallmark University

Job Title

Professor

Select the Board position that you are interested in.

1st Vice President

If elected, how would your experiences and qualities benefit TACVPO?

Dr. Brauckmiller is also a highly regarded educator and scholar. Promoted to professor at Hallmark University in San Antonio, Texas, he has served as a personal mentor to Hallmark University business students and graduates, helping them achieve academic and professional success. He has also served as a guest adjunct instructor at St. Mary’s University, an assistant professor at Hiwassee College in Tennessee, and a volunteer editorial and science board member for the Journal of Global Justice and Public Polic. Following his military retirement in 2015, Dr. Brauckmiller has held numerous leadership roles and contributed extensively to his profession and community. He served as the Director of Healthy and Safe Communities at the Washington State Department of Health, where he led initiatives to enhance public well-being. A Veterans Leader and Keynote Speaker, he has shared his insights and experiences at events such as the Walden University Research Conference and Residency in 2018. Additionally, he has served as a Veteran School Certifying Official (VACSO), supporting veterans in their educational pursuits. He is also an active member of the Texas Veterans Commission and the Texas National Guard, furthering his impact in support of military personnel and veterans.

Holding a position on the board will take time away from your daily duties so, it's important that you have the approval of your supervisor before accepting a seat on the board. Are you able to uphold the duties of this position for the 2019 term?

Yes

How does being a member of TACVPO benefit the Veteran Community?

Investing in and contributing to a veteran community is not just about supporting individuals, it’s about empowering those who have served to continue making meaningful contributions to society while ensuring their sacrifices are honored and valued. This will be done by recognizing inclusiveness, awareness, resilience, sharing real world scenarios and providing role models that encompass all aspects of active duty, reserve, National Guard, Veterans and Retirees to include difficulties of civilian transition.

Is this a self-nomination?

Yes
