

Kelly Murphy has worked at Amarillo College for 17 years, serving as the Veterans Coordinator for the last nine years. Her father was a LTC in the Air Force and was also married to an Army vet, serving three years in Germany from 1989 to 1992. While raising two fabulous kids, she managed to earn a B.S. degree in Occupational Education and a M.S. in Human Behavioral Studies. She loves working with veterans and is blessed to be able to help them be successful in their collegiate journey.
