

Tila Jernigan has worked at Texas A&M University-Central Texas beginning in August 2013, initially serving as a Veteran Benefit Advisor for two years. In April 2015, Tila accepted the position of Assistant Director of Veteran Affairs and was ultimately promoted to Director of Military and Veteran Services in February 2017. Tila is a military spouse & mom, her husband, is currently serving on active duty and stationed at Fort Hood, Texas. She has an undergraduate degree in Psychology from The University of Texas at San Antonio and a Master's in Business Administration with a concentration in Management from Our Lady of the Lake University. Tila loves serving the veteran and military communities in obtaining their educational goals.